

David Sawyer oversees the trust and estate advisory and administrative functions at Harris myCFO. He joined Harris in 2006 after practicing as an attorney in the area of estate planning with Sachnoff and Weaver Ltd. (now Reed Smith LLP) in Chicago, IL, then honing his experience working in the Private Wealth Group at Bank of America. Today, David's areas of expertise are sophisticated wealth transfer tax planning, philanthropic giving and trust and estate advisory and administration, which dovetail perfectly with the Harris myCFO platform of services. He has spearheaded a variety of strategic initiatives, primarily focusing on creating internal policies that support the effective fulfillment of Harris myCFO client needs within the private wealth market.

David earned his JD with honors from Chicago Kent College of Law, and is a member of both the Chicago and Illinois Bar Associations.

David lives with his wife in LaGrange, IL, and is a board member of River North Dance Chicago.
